Golf4Life Charity Tournament to Benefit Drought-Stricken African Villages

COLUMBUS, OH – On Saturday July 11, 2015, Drill4Life, Inc. will host its Second Annual Goff4Life Charity Golf Tournament at Black Hawk Golf Club, 8830 Dustin Rd, Galena, Ohio.

The event is a production of Drill4Life, Inc.; a local charity that drills boreholes and water wells in Africa to help the suffering of more than 358 million people with no access to clean water.

Founded in 2014, Drill4Life's current efforts are focused primarily on the country of Zimbabwe. In fact, two Board Members actually migrated from Zimbabwe, Dionne McCarthy, Miss Zimbabwe 1995 and Simba Maswelas, a hotel management consultant who helped found the organization with Stacey Lambright, a partner in the real estate company, The Lambright Team.

Taking up their golf clubs and joining in this charitable effort will be local sports celebrities and ardent supporters of the cause; JJ Sullinger, former OSU basketball, Guard; Terence Dials, former, one-time Big Ten Player of the year (2006) and OSU Power Forward; 1997 Rose Bowl hero and former Buckeye Wide Receiver, Dimitrious Stanley and Dee Miller, also a former OSU Wide Receiver.

Major sponsors include Buckeye Nissan insurance, the 4th Hole Sponsor who will be giving away a 2015 Nissan Rouge to the gifted golfer who sinks a Hole-in-One at the 4th.

The event begins with registration and lunch at 1:00 pm and tee time starts at 2:00 pm. There will be contests, raffles, prize giveaways and family fun throughout the day, ending with an evening program that includes a catered, authentic Zimbabwean Cookout at 6:00 pm featuring food and recipes from the region.

The cost to play is: $60 for one, $120 for a twosome, $180 for a threesome, $240 for a foursome. Family members can purchase individual meal tickets for lunch and the cookout.
